Re: Amendment To Complaint Filed on April 11, 2006

Dear Your Honorable District Judge Anderson:

I am writing to respectfully request that The United States District Court amend the complaint filed on April 11, 2006, to include the following information for additional Judgements, Orders, and Process Service by the United States Marshalls.

1. The Order dated October 11, 2005 for case number 05 CV 22938 17 BD from The United States District Court demanded that the mortgage holder, Citifinancial Mortgage, dismiss the (illegal) state foreclosure as a result of mortgage fraud.

The mortgage holder, Citifinancial Mortgage, issued a signed Deed and Title to me for both Citifinancial Mortgages on December 18, 2005.

I was in contact with the mortgage holder, Citifinancial Mortgage, to forward the Release of Lien and Satisfaction of Mortgages to me as well following the issuance of the Deed and Title.

An attorney alleging to be acting on behalf of Citifinancial Mortgage Company, Attorney T. Lowdnes Pope, located in the BB & T Building, Columbia, South Carolina, issued documents scheduling an illegal mortgage fraud foreclosure hearing for April 25, 2006.

Attorney Lowdnes Pope is working in conjunction with Orangeburg Consolidated School District Five's employees, Workers Compensation Coordinators, Nancy Ford and Susan Yoakum, and Attorneys, Andrea Pope, Andrea White, David Morrison, Ronnie Hutto, James Jackson, and Jay Anderson (formerly of South East Title Services).

I contacted Attorney T. Lowdnes Pope on three prior occasions informing him of the previous filings and Judge's rulings on October 11, 2005. He was also provided a copy of the ruling on two occasions, in which he chose to ignore, by continuously attempting to send mail to my post office box and the scheduling of unauthorized hearings not consented by the mortgage company.

I was contacted by Mr. Tripp Lawton, Law Clerk to Judge J. Williams, Circuit Court Judge, and informed that the hearing has been rescheduled for Wednesday, May 3, 2006 at 9:00am for Attorney Lowdnes Pope.

2. I am also respectfully requesting that The United States District Court enforce the Order for Reversal of the Writ of Assistance for illegal eviction from my home on April 11, 2006, via mortgage fraud documents alleging that Wachovia, as a trustee for Long Beach Mortgage company. Wachovia, nor Long Beach are or ever were my mortgage companies.

On February 23, 2006, I rejected service of documents attempting to be served by Lt. Jerome Felder, civil processing supervisor for the Orangeburg County sheriff department, signed by Attorney Jay Anderson, alleging to be representing Wachovia, as a trustee for Long Beach Mortgage company regarding an eviction – 2 page document.

On February 26, 2006, I rejected service of documents attempting to be served by Ms. Cindy Looney, independent processor, alleging to be representing the Rogers, Townsend, and Thomas Law Firm, for Wachovia, as a trustee for Long Beach Mortgage company regarding payments or an eviction – 10 page document.

Washington Mutual Home Loans is the legitimate mortgage holder. Washington Mutual Home Loans did not bring about these actions.

Attorneys of The Rogers, Townsend, and Thomas Law Firm, Attorney Jay Anderson(formerly of South East Title Services). Ronnie Hutto, James Jackson, and DeWal Waters, are working in conjunction with Orangeburg Consolidated School District Five's employees, Workers Compensation Coordinator, Susan Yoakum, and Attorneys, Andrea Pope, Andrea White and David Morrison.

Following the Judgement issued on October 11, 2005 for case number 05 CV 22938 17BD, stating the house could not be sold, since it was an asset of a Chapter 13 Bankruptcy for Washington Mutual Home Loans. Washington Mutual Home Loans substantiated that they were the legitimate mortgage holder.

The attorneys' were then contacted and asked to adhere to the Judge's Order and Judgement for the case number 05 CV 22938 17 BD. They were also reminded that the mortgage companies substantiated that they were not legitimately or legally representing the mortgage companies that legitimately held the liens for the properties.

I am respectfully requesting that the United States District Court issue additional Judgements, Rulings, and Orders, Warrants via the service of the United States Marshall Service, to reverse these illegal actions caused by the mortgage fraud participants.

I am also respectfully requesting that The United States District Court, The United States Office of the U.S. Attorney, The U.S. Internal Revenue Service, Criminal Investigative Division, and The U.S. Federal Bureau of Investigations issue sentencing of prosecutions for the individuals and financial institutions responsible for all aspects of the extensive mortgage fraud cases.

I can be reached via telephone contact by calling (803) 655-7813, or via the mailing address of Post Office Box 2194, Orangeburg, South Carolina 29116 or Post Office Box 331, St. Matthews, South Carolina 29135.

Thank you.

Sincerely,
Tressa R. Glover
